Hawaiian Electric Company.

The cleanest, brightest safest and really, in the long run, the cheapest and best light for use in the family residence, is the incandescent electric light. Safe; nothing could be safer. A few days ago a prominent gentleman of Honolulu came rushing down to the office of the Electric Company and said: "Give me figures for wiring my house, and I want it done at once; no more lamps for me. Last night a lamp tipped over and it came so near setting fire to the house and burning my children and I take no more risks." This is the sentiment of quite a number in the past few weeks, who have ordered their houses fitted with the perfect light. Just think it over and make up your mind that you want the best and safest light; send for the Hawaiian Electric Company and tell them what you want. We have a complete stock of everything in this line and have just received a lot of the very latest designs in chandeliers.

STRONG STOCK COMPANY

THE FRAWLEY PLAYERS AT THE HEAD-OF- THE CLASS.

Some of the Best Talent of the American Stage—The Honolulu Engagement—Seats for the Season.

Actors and theater-goers of what are called the old school are frequently heard to regret that the days of the stock company are practically over.

Their lament is based principally on the fact that the traveling combinations, while they have some advantages, are inferior in their art, and that members of them have neither the opportunity nor the desire for the study and improvement which the men and women of a stock company earnestly strive for.

T. DANIEL FRAWLEY.

The traveling combinations as a rule play one thing year in and year out, and as they are on the go continually, the public of no city have a chance to adopt favorites on account of their individuality.

The stock company people, on the other hand, have many plays to study and familiarize themselves with, which in itself is a schooling that has developed some of the best actors in the United States.

It is therefore with pleasure that the public, so far as can be learned, has been much interested in the announcements heralding the advent in this city of the Frawley Company, one of the finest dramatic organizations that ever toured the American continent.

The season seat sale for this company commences on Monday morning at Holron's drug store.

MAKEE NEW AGAIN.

The James Makee, after a thorough overhauling, and receiving a new boiler, has again gone into commission and sails for Kapaa at 4 p. m. on Monday. The Makee, the first of the Inter Island Co's. steamers to arrive here, has done years of good service, and has carried thousands of valuable freights. Today she looks "spick and span" as a new steamer right off the stocks, and is good for many years work yet. She takes 100 tons of coal and her usual consignment of freight to Kealia.

TROOP SAILORS.

The crew of the Troop having demanded a court hearing, were arraigned this morning and the case was postponed until Monday. The Troop will not now be able to sail until some time next week.

LONG LIVED LOWRIES.

Made His Advent With the Century and Will Vote for McKinley.

(San Francisco Chronicle.) George Lowrie, the oldest voter in Alameda county, does not want it understood that he is doing anything new by supporting McKinley and the Republican ticket, for he has been a member of the party and a firm believer in its principles since it was organized. Mr. Lowrie was born in Dunfermline, Fifeshire, Scotland, on August 4, 1800, and came to the United States in April, 1847. He took out his first papers at once, and was made a citizen in 1852. His first vote was cast in Enfield township, Hartford county, Conn., for Franklin Pierce in 1853. He came to California in 1872 and engaged in farming. In 1882 he visited the East again, but did not remain away from the state very long. He has lived in San Lorenzo for eleven years, and has made his home with his daughter, Mrs. Branin. Mr. Lowrie has one ambition now, and that is to live until 1900. He came into the world with the century, and now that he has lived this long, wants to keep it company to the end. He often talks of it and will be happy and ready for the end if he is spared four years more. There is every reason to believe that he will have his wish gratified, for he is hale and hearty. He is bright and lively, and chatted pleasantly for half an hour yesterday on current events. He knows all the reasons for his stand on the issues of the day.

(Geo. Lowrie is the uncle of W. J. Lowrie, manager of Ewa, who has another uncle over 90 and whose mother, a visitor to Hawaii some years ago, is 82 years of age.)

may not be a necessary garment for everyday wear in this warm climate, but there are many occasions when they come in useful.

We are showing an elegant line in our Merchant street window to-day.

If you contemplate a trip to the Coast it's absolutely necessary to have one to protect you from the cold.

You can buy one from us that will fit you equally as good and cost you the same (perhaps less) than you would have to pay on the Coast.
